

What Can I do if I'm Being Harassed?

- ◆ Trust your own judgment.
- ◆ Do not blame yourself – it's not your fault.
- ◆ Keep a journal of each time something happens, including dates, times, locations, witnesses and if you were able to stop it. Include how the situation made you feel.
- ◆ Confide in a friend, family member or teacher about it and how it makes you feel.
- ◆ Tell the harasser to stop, either in person or in writing. Inform him/her which specific behaviors are inappropriate and unwelcome. If you feel too uncomfortable to confront the harasser yourself, seek the assistance of a trusted individual (friend, parent, teacher, principle, etc.) Regardless of how you choose to do it, the harasser must be told to stop and why.
- ◆ Does your school have a sexual harassment policy? If your school has a sexual harassment policy, be sure to follow it. If not, talk to school officials or a trusted adult about the harassment. If your school takes the appropriate actions, the situation is in the hands of your administrators. Be sure to cooperate with them to get the problem solved. However, if your school doesn't take the appropriate actions, then you or someone acting for you may file a complaint with the Office of Civil Rights.
- ◆ Report the offensive behavior to a teacher, counselor or school administrator.
- ◆ If your school does not correct the problem, ask a trusted adult to contact:
Office of Civil Rights
US Department of Education
600 Independence Avenue, S.W.
Washington, DC 20202-1100

- ◆ For additional information and a complaint form, ask a trusted adult to contact the New York office for Civil Rights at:
75 Park Place
New York, NJ 10007
(212) 637-6466
weekdays from 9:30 a.m. – 3:30 p.m.
- ◆ You also can call the New Jersey Coalition Against Sexual Assault at 800-601-7200. A recorded message will list the local hotline in your county. When you call the local hotline, you may need to leave a name and a phone number for a counselor to return your call.

What Can I do if I Witness Someone Else Being Harassed?

- ◆ Say that you don't think it's funny.
- ◆ Tell the harasser to stop.
- ◆ Encourage the person being harassed to seek the help of a teacher, counselor, school administrator or hotline.

Are You a Sexual Harasser?

Take this test: Would you say or do the same thing in front of your parent, teacher or other respected adult? No? Then don't say it or do it at all! This behavior may very well be considered sexual harassment.

Steps

Sexual harassment differs from case to case. Many times it happens in different steps from sexist remarks to sexual assault. However, the steps may not always apply or happen in the same sequence.

- Step 1: Sexist remarks – convey degrading sexist attitudes
- Step 2: Seductive behavior – sexual advances
- Step 3: Sexual bribery – promise of reward in return for a sexual favor
- Step 4: Sexual coercion – use of threats to force a sexual favor
- Step 5: Sexual assault – touching, physical assault, rape
